On February 13th 2009 the writer was contacted by Commonwealth Attorney Marsha Garst. She advised that her office received information about witness April Smith. According to the information Crystal Woods is claiming that April Smith told her that the inmates that testified against Donna Hockman made up information they testified about.

On February 13th 2009 the writer went to the Rockingham County Regional Jail and spoke with April Smith. She was asked if she knew a Crystal Woods. She stated that she did. Are you in the same block together or ever been? No. How do you know her? Have seen her at recreation and talked with her a couple of times. Did you ever talk with her about the Donna Hockman case or what you or the others were going to testify about? No. When you testified at the trial for Donna Hockman, did you make up ANY of the information you testified about? No, it was what Donna told me.

April was thanked for speaking with me and released to the jail deputies.
